A Graceful Start for Seminary Wives Discipleship

Seminary Wives Discipleship, more popularly known as SemWives, begins this year with the theme of “Stewards of God’s Grace.” Each guest speaker will focus on a particular aspect of ministering in the home and in the church as a woman of God.

SemWives is devoted to enriching and equipping the wives of future pastors. Specific areas of discipleship center on devotion to God, devotion to her family, devotion to her personal obedient walk with Christ, and devotion to skilled ministry alongside her husband.

In addition to the weekly gatherings, the wives have access to two other helpful resources, which we eagerly invite you to use as well.

- First, all the audio recordings of the guest speakers since 2005 are available online. The recordings can be searched by topic as well if you have a specific area of interest.

- Second, SemWives publishes a monthly newsletter, The Distaff, in order to encourage and train godly women. Proverbs 31:19 describes a godly woman using a distaff (a rod-like tool used with a spindle) to create fine thread from wool or flax, which was then woven into cloth, and fashioned into beautiful clothes. This wonderful illustration of how a godly woman brings her faith in Christ and her love for her family to bear to create beauty, warmth, and nurturing in her home embodies the spirit of SemWives. The Distaff features helpful articles, recipes, book reviews, “healthful hints,” craft ideas, Wise Words for Wise Women, and testimonies of TMS student wives.

Please pray for the wives of our students as they grow in being stewards of God’s grace.
grace this year.

Yours for the Master,

Bob White
