Dear MSJ Subscriber,

Every spring a special series of messages called The Faculty Lecture Series is presented in chapel at The Master's Seminary. These messages deal with a specific issue of current theological interest. Since 1998 the fall issue of The Master's Seminary Journal has been dedicated as a "single topic" issue, presenting those chapel messages in articles where the full breadth of research, quotations, footnotes, and an extensive bibliography could be presented.

The focus of the Fall 2011 issue of MSJ is “Christ’s Church.” Dr. John MacArthur, President of The Master's Seminary, will introduce the topic with “Preaching the Word” and professors of TMS will present the following:

- “Praying to God” by Dr. James Rosscup
- "Leading the Saints" by Dr. Richard Mayhue
- “Worshipping the King” by Dr. Andrew Snider
- “Evangelizing the Community” by Dr. Alex Montoya
- “Reaching the World” by Dr. Irv Busenitz
- “Counseling the Fainthearted” by Dr. John Street
- “Caring for the Needy” by Dr. Mark Tatlock
