Michael Mahoney (M.Div. ’06), Pastor of Administration at Grace Community Church, delivered a compelling message recently at the TMS Chapel service. From Acts 13, he reminded us that the point of being trained and called into ministry is to go, and that a faithful sending church is to send. The church at Antioch sent their two best men, Barnabas and Saul (Paul) to the mission field where they “proclaimed the word of God” (Acts 13:5). This exemplified the partnership of the local church, supporters of the mission work, and the missionaries themselves working in tandem to proclaim the gospel of Christ. We praise the Lord for this clear reminder to send God’s chosen men into the world.

Expectantly,

Richard Mayhue, Th.D.
Executive Vice President and Dean

P.S. As today marks the 496th anniversary of Martin Luther nailing his 95 theses to the door of the Castle Church of Wittenburg, I encourage you to be reminded of our rich Christian heritage by listening to some of the lectures found in Historical Theology II at our Theological Resource Center website.
